The U.S. Military and the Catholic Faith: A Comparison Oct 15 2021 I started this book from a topic that just hit me out of the blue one day while at work in my office. From there, I decided to write a summarized comparison of the Church and the U.S. Military and share it with others. This was written in hopes that it could be used as an evangelization book. This little book could possibly be used to help support some belief questions as well. Which could hopefully be used as an apologetic tool as well. Please forgive me if any errors seemed to be found within this piece of work. As much as I tried to make this to be as perfect as possible, I know it won't be, but we all must try to do our best at what we can do. As Jesus states, "Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect" (Matt. 5:48).

Track in the Forest Apr 09 2021 The 1968 US men's track and field team featured such legends as Tommie Smith, Bob Beamon, Al Oerter, and Dick Fosbury and they won 12 gold medals and set six world records at the Mexico City Games, one of the most dominant performances in Olympic history. The Black Power protest of Tommie Smith and John Carlos on the victory stand in Mexico City remains a most enduring images of the games. A 400-meter track carved out of the Eldorado National Forest above Lake Tahoe played a role in molding that juggernaut. To acclimate US athletes for the elevation of Mexico City, the training camp and final Olympic selection was held at Echo Summit near the California-Nevada border. On a track in which hundreds of trees were left on the infield to minimize environmental impact, four world records fell—more than have been set at any US meet since. But the Vietnam War was raging, Martin Luther King Jr. and Robert Kennedy were assassinated, and a group of athletes from San Jose State had been threatening to boycott the Mexico City Games to protest racial injustice. Informed by dozens of interviews and the deep knowledge of sports journalist and track enthusiast Bob Burns, this is the story of how in one of the most divisive years in American history, a California mountaintop provided an incomparable group of Americans shelter from the storm.
